Bow Island North

Sing on sweet Thrush' upon the leafless boughs,
Sing on sweet bird, I listen to thy strain.
See how Winter, 'mid his sultry reign
As thy blythe carol clears his furrow'd brow.
Robt. Burns.

The world famed Bard, Robt. Burns was a Scotman as everyone knows and on the occasion of his Thirty Fourth birthday, he was sitting at an open, window listening to the spring song of a thrush, hence his inspiration to write a poem on that beautiful bird As we farmers dash the cobwebs from our sleepy eyes at four thirty we hear the blissful music of the bird's awakening; most prairie dwellers are too eager to commence the daily routine to stop and listen for one moment to the joyous chorus without we have several new birds this week and such welcome than to our mist.

The great Spotted Woodpecker has put in his appearance, the first time after he is a very beautiful bird of plumage, the Bluebirds are busy building, likewise the Flycatchers and Meadow Larks; To a lover of the feathered tribe, this district would surprise the layman in its truly wonderful variety in birds.

Seeding operations are in full swing north of the town and we might say with confidence that chances were never better for a bumper yield. We live in hope.

Mr. Alex Niven, arrived on Saturday last, from Calgary, where he had been spending the winter, on a visit to his daughter Mrs. Bruce Manden for the summer Saturday.

The farm of Mr. and Mrs. J Little seems some splendidly cultivated fields, we hope that his earnest endeavors will be highly rewarded in a bountiful harvest.

Mr. Hubka certainly is to be complimented on the erection of so commodious a barn, every convenience to lessen the labours of a farmer, and to stow comfort on his stock, some more barns of similar design would be a welcome commodity to some of his neighbors.

The river which was as usual very muddy following its breaking up and going out, is once again nice and clear and a draught of its "Aqua pura" cannot be beaten. Since Prohibition reigns in our midst a little "H 2 O" of the old Saskatchewan bend, certainly touches the spot, these warm days.

Italy Considers She Has Had Poor Deal

Allies Welcome Delay

London. — Public opinion in Italy, according to a wireless message from Rome, is much excited against the peace conference for refusing to accept the Italian demands. Apparently there is a complete truce in party politics and the newspapers are unanimous in blaming the allies. It is declared that it is unusual so high that it might have a disastrous influence on the Italian relations.

The Italians consider that they have been betrayed by the allies, the despatch says. The whole nation is in a state of alarm, and the capital of Orlando and Sonnino. There is a brave army ready to make every sacrifice for the realization of their programs. Many popular demonstrations were held in the capital, and the slogan adopted is "Death or Death."

If the conference does not accept the Italian point of view, the situation will become extremely serious.

Germany's Idea of League

Support World Parliament and International Tribunals

Copenhagen. — The German counter-proposals to the league of nations are published in a long dispatch from Berlin. The German draft proposes that the league shall absorb all belligerent states and all neutral states, which were signatories of The Hague treaty, other states to be admitted by the consent of a majority of the members of the league, but the Holy See to be admitted without this condition. It is proposed that the league shall function through a congress of states and a world parliament, the latter to consist of a body comprising representatives, with equal rights, of all the governments.

The world parliament is to be elected from the populations of each million inhabitants, but no movement to send more than ten representatives.

Further, it is proposed that a central social body shall be created, an international tribunal and a mediation bureau, to decide respectively questions of interest. Every difference between states must be submitted to either body.

No Relief for Germany

New York. — The federal reserve board has decided to help the state of New South Wales will bear the cost of training returned soldiers for the government railway workshops. The step will be taken in order to replace men who are leaving the shops through natural causes, and also to meet contemplated extensions of the railway.

Fiume Complications

Fiume. — The situation in Fiume is complicated by the fact that the town, as the headquarters of the Austro-Hungarian army of the Orient, contains French and British as well as Italian troops. A one-sided Italian occupation of Fiume, it is believed, would immediately provoke a diplomatic and military issue with the European allies.

State to Train Returned Men

Sydney. — The state of New South Wales will bear the cost of training returned soldiers for the government railway workshops. The step will be taken in order to replace men who are leaving the shops through natural causes, and also to meet contemplated extensions of the railway.

Italy Must Forego Claim to Fiume

London. — With reference to the Italian claims the Associated Press learns that under the treaty of London, Italy was entitled to Trieste, Pula and part of Dalmatia, but Fiume was to go to Croatia.

Great Britain has advised Italy in her own interests to forego some of her claims, but if the Italians insist on their rights under the Treaty of London, and the allies are prepared to honor their signature, in which case, as pointed out to Italy, which must go to Croatia.

It is understood that President Wilson issued his statement on his sole responsibility, that Premier Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau are still actively seeking to bring about an agreement.

It was learned at Italian headquarters that the Italian delegates were first apprised of the British attitude on the 1st. It appeared in the afternoon papers. Premier Orlando at once sent a note to Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau asking them if they thought it feasible after the publication of this document the Italians could remain in the peace conference. A reply had not been received up to date.

In the statement issued by President Wilson explaining his position on the Adriatic question he declares that Fiume cannot become a part of Italy.

The president points out that every condition concerning the Adriatic settlement has been changed since the signing of the armistice.

The president also contends that the strategic necessity pleaded in behalf of Italy's claim to the Dalmatian Islands no longer prevails, as the Austrian naval menace has ceased to exist.

In issuing his official statement on the Adriatic question, President Wilson let it be known that he desired to call the attention of the world to the fact that there was certain weight to be given to principles which have been accepted by the peoples of the world as the basis for a lasting peace.

The president also stated that the real difficulty is in order that these principles may be accepted by the peoples of the world.

The peace delegates generally regard President Wilson's statement as a challenge which will give for all purposes the question whether secret documents, of which many nations are in possession, in the war were really signed, are to be put in the public domain.

Hungarians Ask for Armistice

If Soviet Government Abdicates Allies Will Grant Request

Berlin. — The League of Angels' Vienna correspondent says that the Hungarian sovereign government requested the entente mission through a Hungarian diplomat in Vienna, to send delegates to Budapest to negotiate an armistice with the Romanians.

"Colonel Cunningham, representing the allies, after communicating with the Hungarian government informed the entente mission to conclude an armistice and immediately snap the advance of its troops if the sovereign government would abdicate and new delegates representative of the government be formed to end the decrees of the sovereign government were withdrawn."

British Pacifists' View

Says Terms Submitted to Germany Would Not End War

Huddersfield, Eng. — Philip Snowden, former Liberal and pacifist member of parliament, in an address at the annual conference of the Independent Labor party, said that the peace terms to be submitted to Germany were not peace terms, and would not end the war. "The new war," he continued, "will be a war of savagery and cruelty, like those of the Greeks and Romans, when the combatants fight for their machines. These orgiasties will not only enable direct communication between London and Paris, but also come to some of the most important towns in the industrial districts."

Riots at Hamburg

Affected the Unloading of Food Relief Ships for a Time

Berlin. — There has been serious disturbance in Hamburg during the week end. A mob plundered the harbor quarter and clashed with the police, several people being killed and wounded. "A dispatch to the Vororten says there was a regular battle in the suburbs of St. Paul, west of the city."

A policeman was killed and several others were wounded, but the rioters suffered more severely.

The rioting was renewed, arms being distributed to mobs in St. Paul, and permanent depots were established by the mobs and one was captured.

Last night the rioting again, and a burg affested by a company of food relief ships for a time, according to official reports received here, but the work was proceeding with voluntary strike breakers, composed mainly of discharged sailors, who realize the vital needs of getting the food unloaded. Until the present outbreak the navy had been able to control the German laborers, and to keep them who had been willing to work.

England mobilized 5,700,000 men, or 12.6 per cent. of the population, and her losses were 680,000, or 1.5 per cent. of the population. The British colonies are not included in these figures.

The United States mobilized 3,800,000 men, or 10.1 per cent. of the population, and losses, 122,000, represents a percentage of 3.18.

Ban on Civil Aviators Lifted

British Agree to Civil Aviation Schemes and Provide for Overseas Trade

London. — The ban of civil aviators will be lifted May 1 in Great Britain. The air ministry, in preparation, has mapped out various air routes and charted the coastwise areas over which the commercial aviators can find airfields and maintain bases for their machines. These outlays will not only enable direct communication between London and Paris, but also come to some of the more important towns in the industrial districts.

Budapest Fears Anarchy

Work Begun at Munition and War Material Factories

Budapest.—This city is going through a crisis worse than that of April, 1919. The communists fear there would be a violent swing to anarchy with the Socialists losing control to Bolshevik leaders like Bela Kun and chiefs of the Red Guard. Local leaders have been held in check, or liquidated as the "nationalization of property" and the assassination of the old political leaders and the aristocrats are feared.

Reports are current that the Russians and Greeks have received orders from the allies to march on Budapest. This is increasing the uneasiness here. It is felt, however, that the communists will not dare to occupy the territory set aside for them by the allied note of March 20, which resulted in the resignation of Count Michael Krolay, former premier.

The communists are unable to prevent the allies from occupying the districts involved is weakening the influence of Bela Kun and is causing violent hatred among the masses of the Hungarians.

London.—In order to orders from the soldiers and workers' council work was begun at munition and war material factories in and around Budapest, according to a Vienna dispatch to the Mail.

Oppression While Russia
Archangel.—Lieutenant Eugene Kamenetsky, chief of the French naval government, told the Associated Press that he was absolutely opposed to the plan of Dr. Friedric Nansen for feeding Russia. Other officials on all hands express similar views.

General Miller said: "The proposition to feed our enemies comes when the moment of victory is near for us, and it is entirely outside the question to think that we should cease fighting in order to permit provisions to reach our enemies."

Disturbances in Hamburg

Hamburg.—A state of siege has been proclaimed in the important German port of Hamburg and the suburbs of Altona and Wandsbek, where disturbances have broken out from Hamburg. As a consequence of the disturbances in Hamburg, the police have received orders to shoot persons carrying arms, plundering or fighting against the national police.

Cure Was Effectual

Princeton, Sask., April 20.—This year will give us a number of what you may expect from this combined treatment for catarrh. While Dr. George L. Williams, of Princeton, has relieved from the stuffy air passages, headaches and annoying symptoms, of catarrh, he has not been able to cure the disease in its entirety.

Ed. L. Jones, Princeton, Sask., writes: "I suffered for some time with catarrh and dyspepsia and my health was so bad that I had run down. My food disagreed with me, and I was constantly bothered by a desire to vomit. I was troubled with flatulence. I tried several doctors, and was in the hospital for a short time, but nothing would help me. Then Dr. Chase's New Food, and Dr. Williams' Medicine, C. O. Grecks Repatriated

Washington.—The repatriation of nearly 60,000 Greeks, who were removed from their homes during the war by the Bulgars, has been practically completed. Returns received at American Red Cross bureaus indicate that the Bulgars tried in every way possible to impede the repatriation work and endeavored to conceal the fact that thousands of the Greeks had died during their internment from starvation and exposure.

To Relieve Unemployment

May Supply Raw Materials to German Factories

Paris.—The international economic council will meet to consider proposals to grant a limited supply of raw materials, notably cotton, to Germany, and to encourage countries to re-employ their workers and to relieve unemployment, which is said to be at the bottom of the misery in Germany. The council, it is said, will also revise regulations for German imports of coal and iron and steel products and probably will discuss the new economic situation, created by the slackening of the blockade regulations as applied to Germany's neutral neighbors.

Help the Y.M.C.A. Finish its Work For Soldiers

Help the "Y" Construct the Manhood that will Re-construct Canada

ALL the world now knows that the Red Triangle of the Y.M.C.A. was the "Sign of Friendship" to thousands of your brothers, sons, nephews, cousins and neighbours' boys in the last four and a half years. Wherever the Canadian Soldiers went, the "Good old 'Y'" went too. And now it is coming back home with them!

For the support which has made possible the war work of the Y.M.C.A. we thank you. Your money has been well expended. We have rendered full account.

We ask now your continued sympathy and support for Red Triangle Service for our Soldiers during demobilization, and for Y.M.C.A. work for Canada generally during the Reconstruction period. The Annual Red Triangle campaign will be held throughout Canada May 5th to 9th, 1919. The objective is $1,100,000.

For Our Men Returning

For the soldiers and their dependents, returning from Overseas, we have prepared the following:

1. Red Triangle men on board every ship when it leaves Great Britain, with a full equipment of games, gramophones and records, magic lantern, literature and writing materials. Where possible, also a piano or an organ. Lectures, concerts and plays, also a picture or Government Reparation plan, etc., and Sunday Services.

2. Red Triangle comforts and facilities for the men on arrival, including a canteen, with free drinks, free eatables, cigarettes, candles, etc.

3. Red Triangle train to provide regularly free meals, entertainment, etc., for the men, organize games and sing songs, and furnish information.

4. Red Triangle free canteens, information bureaux, etc., at each of the 22 Dispersal centres in Canada.

5. Red Triangle Clubs in the principal cities of Canada in the shape of large Y.M.C.A. Hostels to furnish lodgings for the men, and to be a rendezvous for soldiers to meet.

6. Seventy-five Secretaries to superintend Red Triangle service in Military Hospitals, Camps and Barracks throughout Canada.

7. Tickets entitling soldiers to full Y.M.C.A. privileges for six months at any local Y.M.C.A. for those who remain in Canada.

In addition to our work for the returning soldiers, we have to continue our service to the tall for the soldiers in Siberia, as well as for special secretaries in Northern Russia, Palestine and Poland.

Y.W.C.A.

For the wives and children of Canadian soldiers, and for Y.W.C.A. work in Canada generally, a sum of $1,000,000 is being raised. The single Fund will be set aside for the Dominion Council of the Y.W.C.A., which is to be the centralizing body, and their little ones on the long journey, from Liverpool to Canada, and to help care for the work for Canadian girls.

For their sake also be generous when you make your contribution.

$1,100,000 May 5 to 9th

Canada Wide Appeal

FOR the sake of our victorious soldiers and their dependents, and the happiness of their home-coming; for the sake of our future citizens, our teen-age boys; for the sake of rural life in Canada; for the sake of the social betterment of the toilers in factory and workshop; for the sake of lonely men and boys in our mines and forests; for the sake of Christian Society and Canadian manhood—we appeal to you. Give us your contribution, little or big. Be as generous as you can.

Hand your contribution to the cayuseyer when he calls, or if you live where it is difficult for him to call, send it by check, money order or registered letter to the National Treasurer, Red Triangle Campaign, 120 Bay Street, Toronto.

The Y.M.C.A. will keep its chain of Service unbroken till the end.

For Canada's Manhood

The Reconstruction program of the Y.M.C.A. includes the following vitally important developments:

1. An increased service to 300,000 teen-age boys in the Dominion—the development of Canadian Standard Efficiency training; Bible Study groups; summer camps; conferences; sports, including football, basketball, tennis, swimming, rowing and races; for boys on the farm and for boys everywhere, who have lacked opportunity for mental, moral, physical or social development.

2. Inauguration of Y.M.C.A. work in the country, and the smaller towns and villages lacking Association buildings and equipment, on a co-operative organization basis. This will include the establishment of Red Triangle centres for social, educational and educational work among boys and men, in co-operation with the church.

3. The promotion of Y.M.C.A. work among Canada's army of workers in industrial plants, both in Y.M.C.A. clubs and in the factory buildings, organizing the social spirit among the inmates of our cities by meetings, entertainments, games and sports.

4. The establishment of the Red Triangle in isolated districts where lumbermen, miners and other workers hold the franchises of industry.

5. Besides these main fields of increased activity for 1919, we have to provide for enlarged work among railway men, telegraphers and telephone operators to encourage physical and sea education. Under all our work we place the fundamental foundation of manly Christianity.

Canadian Citizenship

A problem which has long confronted Canada, and which it has been the aim of all governments, Dominion and Provincial, for the past quarter of a century and more to solve, has been how to secure and retain population. In the past, we have given more attention to securing population than to retaining it, and have spent more time and spent more money in endeavoring to secure population than they have to retaining that population when secured, and more particularly in Canada than in our own Canadian born.

With enormous unexploited tracts of land only awaiting settlement to become productive and wealth-producing, the Dominion government adopted a free homestead policy, created a federal immigration department, and spent millions in advertising and other propaganda to induce people in all countries to come to Canada. For these efforts there was little success, and the curving dotted line revealed the fact that Canada was not even retaining its own natural growth in population.

Naturally, but nevertheless uninvited, came thousands of immigrants at Ottawa and in some of the provinces, both Liberal and Conservative, in their efforts to secure immigrants to assist in the cause of national defense. British and Canadian born subjects were called upon to fulfill. Exemption from military service was granted; special privileges in regard to language, education, and personal beliefs were freely given; and the right to live in isolated communities apart from other citizens was not only admitted, but even encouraged.

As a result of these policies, Canada has received thousands of people who claim, and have a legal and treaty right to claim, special rights and privileges which are denied to Canadian born citizens. Even before the Great War, through the efforts of various groups of unassimilated Indians, anxious about the future welfare of their country, were becoming seriously alarmed over the resultant situation, and it only took the Great War, with all it demanded of patriotic effort, to bring something like equality and the right to live in isolated communities apart from other citizens was not only admitted, but even encouraged.

Malay Yields Many Commodities

Producing Practically the Supply of Tin and Rubber

Malays can raise capia, oleo-margarine and shark oil, and the good old farmyard rooters. How many people stop to think where these everyday things come from originally? Mice and elephants, sticklebacks and crocodiles, peacocks, tigers, monkeys, apes, orangutans, magnificent butterflies, scorpions, centipedes, innumerable monkeys and apes—these only comprise an insignificant part of the endless variety of livings things in the far off jungles of Malay land.

—In the China sea, the most southerly part of Asia, a few days sailing from the Philippines, is situated this country, producing practically the world's supply of tin and plantain oil. The Malay Peninsula is probably better known by its two large seaports, Singapore and Penang, both of these being situated on small islands belonging to Great Britain, and close in to the mainland, so that communication is kept by ferry boats.

The peninsula must be described as one vast forest or jungle, covering a humbled mass of jungle while the whole country is intersected in every direction by rivers and streams.

Only an insignificant part of the country has been visited by human beings, except perhaps by the "jungle men." The Malays themselves live along the coasts and the banks of the rivers, rarely, if ever, penetrating the interior.

For the last six years the writer has been living in the jungle with a party of Malays, traveling river and roads across the peninsula, and into Siam, for the British government. Sometimes for as long as a year no other white man was seen.

The first part of the journey was made by boat, the remainder by land, of the steel was required and it became necessary to hire boats and coolies. Passing up the rivers, every now and then would be seen trees felled by monkeys, feeding on wild fruit. Directly behind them were others who would spring from branch to branch, crashing through the leaves, taking tremendous leaps, mother monkeys holding little monkeys in their arms, children playing, and even the dogs, leaping over the branches.

Often beneath these monkey colonies could be seen the gray-green form of a crocodile, patiently waiting for one to drop into the river. Crocodiles are very wary, however, and when basking or fishing, come alongside a boat and knocking the occupants out of a swish of the tail. They then drag their victims ashore, and when the life is snuffed out, the body is thrown into the water.

Even five miles along the river banks we passed Malay villages, with their houses built about four feet above the ground on piles. The under-ground part of the house was covered with palm fronds, and when the floors in Malay have plenty of large cracks, through which rubbish can conveniently be dropped.

Malays live in these houses until the collared ants, old timers, and then build new ones. Usually one finds around the houses various kinds of fruit trees, especially the coccoons, the nuts from which are generally gathered by trained monkeys. These monkeys have a short tail, about an inch long, and are unusually intelligent. When a cocoon is wanted the monkey will set up the tree and he will climb up the trunk, perhaps a bunch of twenty. It is quite common to hear a conversation between monkey and master.

A fresh green coconut usually contains from a pint to a quart of sweet water. The meat of the nut is in the form of a soft white jelly and is easily eaten, or easily broken upon a spoon. Immense quantities of cocoons are crushed by the natives, who ask what Japan could do about crushing Borneos.

Chains are cableled to Tokio and ready to move the general staff and carry out any operation for ending the control of Lenin and Trotzky in Russia within two months.

The French then asked the Japanese if a state of Siberia would be acceptable as a payment.

The Japanese replied in the negative, that Japa was friendly to Russia and did not wish to incur the expense of taking any new territory, and therefore endeavored to set up a stable Russian government, which would protect French finance, in France, England, India and China.

This proposition was not acceptable to France, so the deal fell through.

It was reported that Japan had made an offer to Russia to send troops to Russia and bear the expenses of the expedition alone, if she receives a mandate for Indo-China. The French received the former German colonies as compensation.

A Winter's Harvest

Make Money by Feeding Stock During the Winter Months

Many of the Western Canadian consider making money by feeding stock during the winter months. Here is a typical example of what is often done along the coast.

Last October Mr. George W. Quinn, who has a ranch across the lake near Macgregor, Manitoba, acquired a青年 head of steers on the Winnipeg market at an average cost of ten and a half cents a pound.

These were fed on hay and grain, and after four months' feeding they increased to about one hundred and fifty pounds in weight and were sold for fifteen and a half cents a pound, yielding a net profit, after deduction of freight, commission and market fees, of $30,510, or $40.90 per steer.

For many years Mr. Quinn has had a herd of cattle on his farm, and after four months' feeding they increased to about one hundred and fifty pounds in weight and were sold for fifteen and a half cents a pound, yielding a net profit, after deduction of freight, commission and market fees, of $30,510, or $40.90 per steer.

Unfortunately for the Shorthorn, it does not pass its color on to its offspring, but they have a strong infusion of Shorthorn blood which was a decided advantage to them in winning premier honors.

We were also extremely pleased to know we had not been forgotten by the good people from South East District, when we were visited by Mademoiselle L. Ancion, we heard that the farmers are very high with spring work and the chances are good for a crop we wish them all a real good bumper crop, for they deserve it, for all their hard work.

Miss Anna Sinclair who has just finished a short term with the Sunnymead School, left yesterday for Calgary. In her brief stay among us her sunshiny smiles and brilliant repartee has won the hearts of the grown-ups as well as the kiddies! Here's to the Wee Scotch Lassie whose smile leaves a halo divine, may the dear heart we know with its love life and glad life forever to warm yours and mine.
